I am selling my glass coffee table, bought from Styleourhome (page 6 in coffee table section) the coffee table is available to view their website. I have had the table just under a year but due to moving to a smaller place i am unable to take this piece with me. It is a beautiful statement piece, so if you are looking for a touch of class then this is definitely for you. I bought this for £705 and i am asking for £375 o.n
