3 months ago we had a new gear box and clutch put in for £1400.

1 month ago we paid another £1400 for the following work back:
MOT
Major service
1 x new fuel injector
New water pump and cam belt
2 x new tyres
New brake pads and oil and few other bits So we have spent £2800 and the head gasket has just blown on New Years day. It's currently at our local garage as a non runner and they're awaiting our instruction.
It's a:

Citroen Xarra Picasso
Silver1.6 HDi 92 Desire
62,418
5 doors
YD08APF 10/03/2008

MOT till November 2016
Car tax till November 2016
Few minor scuffs and scratches on the exterior (we could use some back to black and t-cut to smooth them out)
Interior is very clean after a valet.
We have most of the receipts / service history and log book Excellent buy for a mechanic or if you have a friend who is a mechanic who can repair the head gasket for a good price as it has a very long MOT and tax and lots of new parts in it and is very low mileage for a diesel - it's currently at our garage but we can go there to take photos of it but it's just like other ones for sale and has silver side door.
