Or maybe you just want to improve the brand identity of your business with a new design or look? I am here to help! Let me introduce myself, my names Steve, a university graduate from The University Of Chichester. I work with individuals such as yourself to improve the functionality of your website and in turn increase client base and potential turnover. Being a university graduate my prices are rock bottom for the time being. I offer very affordable websites for both small and established businesses and services that are efficient in increasing customer leads and could earn you that extra bit of cash each week. I have recently worked on a fresh new website with the Liverpool Cake Company and already they are reaching new customers that are Googling terms such as 'Liverpool birthday cakes', 'liverpool wedding cake', 'christening cakes liverpool' and so on... Liverpool Cake Company has gone as far as saying -
