* As new, boxed and tagged, worn as an emergency once but we're too small. * Has a v small but unrecognisable light scuff on left toe, no damage and doesn't show. * There are some v small bits of grit in the sole. * Worth every penny, I have my sized pair the same, great for all aspects of day to day front line industrys. * Great for the outdoors, flexible for long walking and I even where them on the pushbike. The Supremacy safety boots are a SBP rated, steel toe cap boot that's made from a full grain water repellent leather. They feature the SR-X sole which is a lightweight PU with a rubber layer that is resistant to 300 degrees C. The outsole is non clog providing greater grip on ladders and in wet conditions. Comfort is secured with a durable padded tongue, collar and ankle for extra protection, whilst included is a pierce resistant midsole and moisture wicking internal membrane. These CAT safety boots come in a high top silhouette with an inside zip fastening for easy access.
