is 5 years old she is a big girl bless her she loves walks and cuddles really good indoors house trained last toilet time which is abit sad is 9.30pm always has been does snore but nothing loud she gets excited with new people and twerks very very good with children and walks off the lead as well even for my mum she does and my mum sees her once a month she doesn't pull 30 min walk is maximum then she see the lazy dog come out she is losing her hair (is growing back) vets said she threats over the cold as she likes to be warm and I've been decorating so it hasn't been great warm inside she had bloods and everything but is nothing unhealthy she is a very healthy dog never had any medical problems at all she is 5 years old she isn't neutered she is mirco chipped as well she has had a litter but that was like 2 years ago vets wouldn't neuter her due to her size wasn't worth risking it and I agreed and she is a precious dog just don't have the time now as we both working long hours and kids have school and after school
