Here for sale is a bespoke piece of furniture which will simply stand out in any room and be the talking point of any conversation !!!

The pine table has been professionally scorched to reveal the grain and give it a rustic farmhouse look. It's then been treated with several coats of Danish oil before having 3 coats of wax to protect the top and make it a truly durable surface.

The simple but stunning pine chairs have been spray painted in Laura Ashley's white cotton eggshell paint to give it a crisp clean finish that complements the table beautifully
