Bargain....as this retails at approx £1000 I have titled the description of this dress as being size 12-14 although it is actually labelled size 14, as it may suit a Bride to be who is a size 12, or in between sizes and can possibly have it professionally altered ?

This stunning NEW ivory wedding gown is actually 2 pieces.

Having checked the description on the web it is a patterned embroidery Tulle over a satin shift dress and is in a column style.

The plain satin strapless figure hugging shift dress has a back zip fastening. The over dress sits over the shoulder and falls to a train.

As to the length of this dress, I am 5ft 10" and there was plenty of length in it for me. Labelled: Size 14
 Such a beautiful, elegant dress.... Retails at over £1000
