Kids love to have fun and they always seek outlets for the same. Take them to trampolining and give them a whole lot activities to have. Let them jump and get delight in tumbling moves. They can flip and fly through the air and jump bang into a foam pit to feel like doing it over and again. They can try Battle Beam where the opponent needs to be edged off into the pit. There is the game of basketball to play and one can perfect the dunking skills. In a sense, activities for kids in London are infinite if they reach a well-equipped.
