We have two kittens left from Tilly's last litter (CH Anizz Tilleadh gu Cagaran) by Donny (I GR CH Cagaran Deathach-Donn). Beattie is a brown silver Burmilla and Neulach is a pale chocolate smoke. Both are vaccinated, microchipped, neutered, GCCF-registered, have been wormed and flea-treated and will leave us with either four weeks Petplan or five weeks Agria insurance (owner's choice). They have been raised in the house and are used to all the normal household noises. Beattie is very cheeky, chatty and playful and loves chewing on fingers and chasing zips, tassles or any other dangly bit of clothing. Neulach is quieter and gentler and loves cuddles, though she'll flip through the air for a feather stick. They would be happy to go as a pair or separately, though I think they'd prefer some sort of feline company because they are used to being part of a.
