We tried late last year to get this off the ground, you may even have attended one of our meets. The first meet for 2016 has been planned for Sat 27th Feb lunchtime/early afternoon. Please go check out the chat page on us-2gether dot weebly cot com for info and to join in the conversation(s). It would be great to see you there. If you are over 45 ish and lonely, would like to have a bit of a social life, meet some new friends and the rest then this may just be the thing for.
