I'm an absolute beginner in his mid 20s looking to learn just for fun and for something to do every now and then on a lunch break. I work near Marlow train station and have an hour for lunch, so your place of teaching must be within about 5 minutes walk of the station. When I take lunch depends a little on workload so I may need a little flexibility but I can aim for a time to suit you - ultimately I can be a little flexible on both timing and pricing. I'm just looking to try this out for a few sessions but if I find singing fun I'd probably be looking at doing a couple of lessons a week. There's a fair chance "world's least musical man" isn't hyperbole. Seriously, I'm really.
