This would be a great 1st car for anyone to have. I have had no problems with it from the day I brought it. 2 previous owners (including myself), full 12 months MOT, no advisories, had new rear brake pads fitted, nothing at all wrong with it. Selling due to getting an upgrade only. I have had to sorn this car off road to save on insurance and tax so please be advised that you will need to purchase insurance or tax for this vehicle if you wish to purchase it before you drive it away as this cancels the.
