Why leave it to VAN HIRE WITH WORKING DRIVER ? Many of us have thought that hiring a van and persuading friends to help us out with the lifting and shifting is the cheapest way to move. But believe us, the cost of having to hire a van, paying for the fuel and the risk of paying a huge damage excess if you have an accident because you are not used to driving a van, can easily be far more expensive and time consuming than the cost of hiring Van hire with working driver. At van hire with working driver we are used to handling household goods and furniture everyday and will be far quicker at loading and unloading than you and your friends. Our vans also come fully equipped with removal blankets and securing straps, for household furniture and other domestic and commercial items. 07760 565 236.;
