This bike looks stunning finished in white & blue, with the ark of the pillion seat and the dual pipe short exhaust. This bike has been very well looked after and is a joy to ride, especially knowing it's a Honda really makes you feel grounded and confident. This is one for riders that want a little better seating position than the full RR model. Taller riders won't have a problem either. This is a very easy bike to ride which is why it appeals to new riders but also advanced riders too, as it's very easy to throw into corners etc, a very fun piece of kit, with low insurance and running costs for a sports bike! This is ready to have some fun with you, and put a big smile on your face! It can be your new play thing for only £5195.
