could find is £37,00 (noting that it is a year newer and I assume will have lower mileage). This is priced to sell to someone who is a great deal, but the minor detail is that the car is a BMW's and it's a very nice car. Also you know this is in A1 condition mechanically. Fully BMW warranty and service. One covered. Contact to find anyone for a restorative (provided you can provide a insured and the car is insured) and three or four minutes to go to a drive in a inspection very nice. Also don't forget to go to any garage or BMW workshop for inspection. Overall a great specification car with amazing performance, returning good economy with a sporty look. Any questions please feel free to
