Here at Sophie E. Daws we assist by providing Lay Representatives and McKenzie Friend services in matters related to most areas of law.

We provide assistance with Special Educational Needs Law or any other area of law which are related to special needs or physical disabilities for families, carers, young adults or the elderly when in crisis. We also provide assistance in these areas of law:

Equality Law
 Social care Law
 Family law
 Landlord & Tenant law

Tailor made complaints to governing bodies, NHS or other related bodies in these areas.

Our assisted Lay Representation and McKenzie Friend specialism is not wholly limited to these areas, please browse the service pages of our website or contact Sophie E. Daws (LLB) to see whether we can assist you in other areas of law.

Our aim is to offer a service which is more financially viable for individuals who are unable to obtain legal aid nor afford to pay for a legal fee. We can assist you with a McKenzie Friend on your case, by providing you with Lay Representation or McKenzie Friend services. We can also provide an affordable

There are currently many individuals who do not receive the support or justice they require due to the current legal aid cuts and low incomes. This leaves so many families and individuals in a legal quandary having to fight cases themselves without the necessary
