

Here at Sophie E. Daws we assist by providing Lay Representatives and McKenzie Friend services in matters related to most areas of law.

We provide assistance with Special Educational Needs Law or any other area of law which are related to special needs or physical disabilities for families, carers, young adults or the elderly when in crisis. We also provide assistance in these areas of law:

Equality Law
Social care Law
Family law
Landlord & Tenant law
Tailor made complaints to governing bodies, NHS or other related bodies in these areas.

Our assisted Lay Representation and McKenzie Friend specialism is not wholly limited to these areas, please browse the service pages of our website or contact Sophie E. Daws (LLB) to see whether we can assist you in other areas of law.

Our aim is to offer a service which is more financially viable for individuals who are unable to obtain legal aid nor afford private legal fees or public assistance and rely on your personal case, by providing you with a letter of invitation to the 'Legal Friend' scheme, we can afford the

there are currently many individuals who do not receive the support or justice they require due to the current legal aid cuts and low incomes. This leaves so many families and individuals in a legal quandary having to fight cases themselves without the necessary

Sophie E. Daws (LLB) Lay
Representation amp McKenzie Friend Services

skills, knowledge or idea how to gain the result or outcome they require.

We are based in the South East of England, but undertake work from all over the country.

Please call or email for a free initial consultation.
;