Have you looked into trading in the worlds largest financial market, but are unsure of who to teach you? I am offering you the chance to be taught to trade in the Forex market using the same trading techniques that are used by the big financial institutions, having traded for some of the worlds largest banks on various trading floors I am very well placed to teach you how to succeed in your trading. My courses are all conducted on a one to one basis, as I believe this is the best way for you to learn how to trade. Trading profits are tax free in the UK, and with low interest rates here to stay for some time, one has to look for alternative ways of making our money work for us. I am bringing to you over 20 years of real world experience of the financial markets, what I will teach you cannot be found in books, on You Tube or Google, my course will take you from start to finish and arm you with the correct tools to enable you to become a profitable trader. My course covers the following subjects: How do the Banks trade? – How do they make their trading decisions?

The Law of Supply and Demand – How to use this when trading, where are these levels?

Risk Management and Money Management – Discovering your risk bubble to keep your emotions in check.

Institutional Order Flow – What is it and how does it affect the market and your trading?

Fundamentals – Central Bank monetary policy, Data releases, Speeches – Why understanding these are crucial to your success.

Time frames are irrelevant – Price is key!

Indicators – Why not to use them.

The Power of Foresight – Looking to the past to predict the future.

Dollar Index & Euro Index – How to use these and have a huge advantage.

What to trade and how to trade – Understand the media and the market, where to trade and when to trade.

The Power of Trade – You are always to win.

Understanding Risk and Reward – Always a 2:1 ratio, a very minimum.

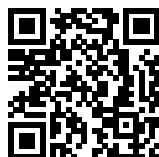

Identifying trading opportunities – Looking for key trading levels.

The banks control 90% of the $5.7 Trillion daily turn over in the Forex market, if you want to be successful and really make money from trading, because anyone can, you need to understand how to think, act and trade as an institutional trader and that's what I am here to deliver for you;
