Today, I am selling my ultra thin Yoga 3 Pro laptop (about as thin and light as the Macbook Air). It's in great conditions with only minimal scratches at the bottom -from general use- it's been kept with great care otherwise. The QHD+ TOUCHscreen looks great for watching movies especially. It's a fantastic laptop for those who like me use it on the go, especially due to its light weight and stands (laptop, tent, tablet...). Works great for normal office and browsing use, wouldn't recommend it for other things like heavy gaming. I must say you get a lot of amazed looks when you handsomely bend it into a tablet and casually swipe through your emails with your fingers. There's no other laptops like this one. The specs are as follows: Processor: Intel Core M 5Y70 Processor (1.20GHz 1600MHz 4mb)
