October 1942. You have been invited for dinner at the Official Residence of the Deputy Mayor of Casablanca. Morocco is a colony of France governed by the Vichy French regime. The guest of honour was to have been France's greatest living mime artist. He fails to arrive, he has been murdered. Those present at the dinner including the murderer:
HUGHES LE GRANDBUTTE - Deputy Mayor of Casablanca
EDITH LE GRANDBUTTE - his wife, a former dancer
NICOLE LE GRANDBUTTE - their daughter
OTTO VON PINKELWURST - a Gestapo officer, fanatical and possibly mad.
KIRK RANSOM III - an American who runs Kirk's African Cafe in downtown Casablanca
COUNTESS BOGOV - an exiled Russian aristocrat
MONSIEUR OILY-CARTE - booking agent for the Moulin Bleu in Paris
PIERRE PAYANSKI - a 24 year old half-Russian poet
CHERIE BOOT - a French cabaret singer in her mid-20s
INGRID PITH - a Danish art dealer
SEAMUS O'HACK - a dissolute Irish journalist
PIA FEDORA - a Spanish cabaret star Everyone's a suspect when murder is on the menu. And with Murder a la Carte you have everything you need to serve up the perfect murder dinner party. First the invites, you choose which of your friends play which devious suspect and invite them to come along as that character. Then the shopping list, menu suggestions and recipes. Plus of course...a really tasty murder to solve.

It will be drop dead fun, and by the end of the evening, one (or more) of the suspects, your 'friends' will have been 'murdered'. As the evening progresses, you will be able to 'kill' your suspects as the murderer. Includes a complete recipe book, recipes, menu suggestions, decorations, character booklets, role cards, and information on a few 'black cat' murder mysteries. Party invitations and envelopes for each character. Six secret clues. CD with an introduction, scene setter, summary of events and solution to the crime. SUITABLE FOR AGES 12 TO ADULT 10-12 Players All in excellent condition (just a few pencil marks in the Party Planner booklet) and ready for your next!
