Since 2008 until 2016 I worked as a music teacher for POP and MUSICALS at "Crina Mardare Music Experience"

From 2011 until 2016 I was also a Vocal Coach in the TV program X FACTOR.

I'm focusing on the study of vocal technique in pop music and the difficulties of interpretation of Musicals, developing vocal technique through specific exercises to each genre approached, stage movement to be studied and understood, individual study of each piece of the artist's repertoire and also prepare students for attending in national and international music competitions.

School hours are individual and customized to each student so we can devote our full attention and support. Each student will learn by using the same vocal technique but approached in a personalized manner to achieve our goals.

Whether you prefer a more technical study singing of the instrument called "Voice" or you prefer a more practical and easier method of teaching we will adapt according to the needs and requirements of each student.
