Do you want to sing?

Whether you are a beginner or professional I can help.

Each lesson is catered for your own personal needs.

I provide a professional and Friendly environment to help you get the best experience out of your lessons. I have a BA Hns degree I music (specialising in voice) and a Diploma in music performance and production. I have trained in Estill voice technique and classical singing . I have been singing and teaching groups and one to one lessons for nearly 10 years. What will I learn?

In your lessons you will learn breathing techniques to help you connect with your diaphragm and control your singing , vocal exercises and techniques to expand and strengthen your vocal range.

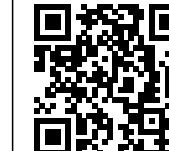

I teach all voice qualities including belt, twang, sob, tilt, falsetto, thin and thick fold onsets (this is how you approach the note) , connection with songs and performance and microphone technique . But most importantly I will help you find your own unique voice as a singer . I am available weekdays and weekends. Lessons costs

£25 per 1/2 hour

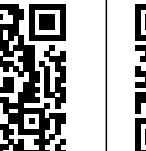

£30 per 1 hour If interested please email to receive your free trial lesson . Look forward to hearing from you
