Hello! My name is Karen, I'm 23, working, English, and have lived in Bicester most of my life. My partner is Vladimír, he is 27, Czech (but speaks a high level of English, currently lives in Czech Republic but is planning to move here in August/September this year once his current work contract ends. We are looking to rent a room in Bicester from this period onwards. We are a friendly, tidy, respectful couple who are looking for somewhere to call home so we can finally end the long distance side of our relationship! Vladimír has had a couple of job offers already, but unfortunately they cannot employ him until he has a UK address. I am currently working as a cleaner. Between us we have a fair bit of money saved up and also have my wages, but because Vladimír can't start his new job until he has moved we will only be able to afford around £500 a month max rent- I understand this is a long shot, but as soon as Vladimír is working this figure can rise! If necessary I am also happy to help out with babysitting and pet care (which I have experience of). So please... If you have something suitable, can you give a young, hard working couple like us the chance of a new life together? :) if so, please get in touch! As I said I am currently living in Bicester, so can pop round for a chat sometime to meet you if you'd like! Thank you for reading our ad!
