Fiat Grande Punto 1.4 16v Sporting 3dr, 2006 (56 reg), Hatchback, 101,000 miles, Manual, 1400cc, Petrol, sporty looking upholstery, Next MOT due November 2016, Service history, Clean bodywork, Clean interior condition (Non-smoker owner), Tyre condition Good, Hill holder, 6 gears, City Steering mode function, Standard Features - Air-Conditioning, Alloy Wheels (17in), Electric Windows (Front), In Car Entertainment (Newly fitted Sony Radio Autochanger/MP3 Aux), 5 seats, Very sporty looking hatchback, rare '1.4 Sporting' model and bright colour with 6 gears means great fuel economy, drives very well with light city mode steering, in great condition with service history from Fiat, recently had new hand brake cable, new exhaust, new brake disc's and pads all round, new coil spring, new tyres fitted on it's last service in November 2015 (3,000 miles ago). Only minor fault I am aware of is my trusted mechanic told me a rear caliper is rubbing. It can be resolved easily enough if the area is lubricated well (this was done a fortnight ago). There is slight paint fading on the roof and rear bumper from exposure to the sun (See photo) but honestly it is not that noticeable in my opinion.

Feel free to ask any questions, all inspections welcome after 6pm on working days and on weekends.
 Reason for sell: Upgrading to VW Scirocco 2.0 GT;
