The formidable Honda CBR1000RR 2009 model was and still is one of the best super sports to hit our roads. The bike was so well design back in 2008 when it was first released Honda have only had to make a very small amount of cosmetic changes since then. The engine kicks out a staggering 178bhp and will hit a 120mph in 1/4 of a mile, the power range is completely unstoppable and the ride and handling is sublime, making the 2009 CBR1000RR a real force to reckon with. This beautiful example of Honda's HRC is exactly that and comes with a bag load of tasteful extras including full akrapovic exhaust system, Pazzo levers, Marchesini black wheels, Dyno jet power commander V and auto tune module, Hell brake lines, Accessato, Tinted Honda racing front screen R&G tail tidy and genuine rear seat cowl, all in all you wont get a more value for money super sports then this!! It also comes with our 12 month warranty and roadside assistance, HPI checked, FSH, MOT and.
