- A Pitch Waiting For Your Very Own Holiday Home Thorness Bay is an amazing park and really does have something to offer for all the family. With a lively restaurant and show bar it offers great family entertainment day and night as well as the opportunity to sample our wide selection of meals available for adults and children alike. Or if that is not your cup of tea then why not have a go in our indoor heated pool or have a play on our adventure playground? And then even after all of that you are still not worn out then why not go for a nice casual stroll down to our private beach and watch as the waves lap against the glistening shore line. Thorness Bay is nestled away in a lovely little corner of the Isle of Wight and sits in an area of outstanding natural beauty. We are only a short 5/10 minutes from the bustling but yet quaint towns of Newport and Cowes.

Our amazing location we are able to offer space that allows that you can get to now where you want to go and enjoy the magical views (perfect for fishing), idyllic water and lush greenery.
