Berkshire Electricians are based in Reading and operate around Berkshire and other areas of South East England. With over 40 years of combined experience in the industry, our electricians are more than capable of completing any project to the highest standard. Whether you require domestic, commercial or industrial work, our experienced team of electrical engineers are always available to assist you from the quotation stage right through to completion. Berkshire Electricians also work closely with landlords, letting agents, builders, commercial establishments & the general public. We offer advice and reliable cost effective solutions, as well as an in depth inspection & testing service. Our dedicated team are always on hand to offer an around the clock emergency electrician call out service, 24hrs a day, 365 days a year!!! In the case of an emergency we pride ourselves on aiming to have an electrician out to you ASAP. Berkshire Electricians only work to the current British Standards, and all of our engineers are Part P registered & SSE approved contractors. All of our work is 100% guaranteed upon completion, and we insist on only using the highest quality materials in all of our installations. Berkshire Electricians hold a £10,000,000 Public Liability Insurance to protect you the customer in the unlikely event of any accidents or damages.;
