This warm, inviting, holiday home the Vogue as soon as you come through the doors you entre the kitchen which has a rap around kitchen, with white units and black top finishes, comes with a lot of storage. The kitchen is equipped with a vintage style cooker, fridge/freezer and to the left of the kitchen there is a separate dinning area. As you walk through to the lounge there is an arch frame door entrance which separates the kitchen and lounge but not completely. Once sitting on the sofa you have an eloquent feeling as you look through the patio doors bringing in that natural light at the front of the holiday home, there is a electric fire which is perfect for those cosy nights in. The caravan also comes with double glazing, central heating, TV Ariel, fire extinguisher and fire alarm and steps and handrail. The two bedrooms home has a door to separate the hallway to the bedrooms from the kitchen and lounge which allows you to have that extra privacy. The master bedroom has the full width of the caravan which is a 38x12 as well as that it comes with a dressing table and a wardrobe so you have plenty of storage for all your things. To top it off there is an en-suite toilet. The home also has a second bedroom that is a twin bedroom that has two single beds in it and also has a wardrobe as well as over the head storage.
