My name is David Offen and my area of expertise is domestic gas central heating. I have 25 years experience working with gas boilers and heating systems and I would like to offer my services to residents of Hailsham, Polegate, Eastbourne, Seaford, Newhaven, Horation, Heathfield, Uckfield, Bexhill and any areas in-between. BOILER BREAKDOWNS AND SERVICING Your gas central heating boiler needs servicing each year to ensure that it runs smoothly, efficiently and safely. I am Gas Safe registered and licensed to work on all type of domestic gas central heating boilers, so if your boiler hasn't had a service recently, call 07596 186 130 to book one in. Occasionally boilers break down, leaving you without hot water and heating. I am a boiler breakdown specialist and will get it up and running again for you as quickly as possible. HEATING MAINTENANCE AND ALTERATIONS Other parts of your heating system may need attention too: for instance you may have a leaky pipe that needs fixing, or want a smart new heated towel rail installed, or even need extra radiators added to your system. Call me on 07596 186 130 for a competitive quote. I look forward to hearing from you and helping to keep your gas central heating running like.
