The OPM (labels and Packaging) Group is comprised of 3 divisions: Labels, Flexibles and Systems - providing award winning printed labels, sachets, flexible packaging and thermal print machines and ribbons. Quality, service and innovation define OPM (labels and Packaging) Group. OPM is driven by continuous improvement and the development of people, processes and systems. Within a framework of Total Quality Management all our products are produced to ISO 9001:2000, BRC/IoP Global Standard Food Packaging standards printed using low migration inks. The print workflow incorporates medical grade 100% inspection units. Customer commitment and an innovation led strategy continue to deliver a model of excellence service approach to more than 1000 clients in domestic and export markets daily. OPM know how to get the look you want and how to help your product compete at retail. OPM know how to select the best materials to ensure that your packaging performs on your production lines, during shipping, at retail, and after the consumer takes it home. Our portfolio of self adhesive products and flexible packaging are utilised in many key sectors including food, beverage, pharma, health & beauty, automotive, vets & pets, medical, specialist and security. We know how to get the look you want and with brand presence to compete at retail. We select the best materials to ensure that your packaging performs on your production lines, during shipping, at retail, and after the consumer takes it.
