I have been teaching the guitar for over two decades. I love it and I love to see the speedy results my students get. For me, teaching the guitar is more than just a lesson. It is about sharing my passion for music with you. If you are interested in one to one guitar lessons with me, I promise to give you 100% of my attention on every single lesson. All my one to one lessons are fun and individually tailored to suit student's needs. You can study either the electric or acoustic guitar and there are no age restrictions – but there is one condition – you have to want to learn to play the guitar. If you have this desire, it will make our work together effortless. I will create a special plan for you and we will track your progress by recording your own performances and songs using my studio equipment. - Lessons are suitable for all levels. From total beginner to advanced guitar players. - You can study electric or acoustic guitar - Fingerstyle, folk, pop, blues, funk, rock, classic rock, hard rock, heavy metal - No age restrictions – children, teenagers, adults. One hour lesson £30 (first lesson 15) What's included in the price: - each lesson lasts for one hour (or 30 minutes) includes all materials: printouts, backing tracks, instructional videos (for beginners my Comprehensive online Guitar Course) - email and phone support (24 hours per day you can get in touch with any questions and guitar related problems you may have - regular jam sessions and student get-together's - occasional master sessions with a guest speaker More info www.guitarcouch.com Lessons take place in a studio designed for teaching/music production Thanks a lot
