Counselling in Shropshire is a counselling and psychotherapy service for individuals and couples experiencing distress who are wanting a safe, supportive, caring, non-judgemental and confidential space to be able to address their problems or concerns. The service offers different levels of ongoing therapeutic support, from time-limited focused counselling for specific issues, to open-ended psychotherapy for long-term or recurrent difficulties with roots in the past. If you would like to learn more about counselling and psychotherapy, the service offers an initial telephone or Skype consultation for which there is no charge. Counselling in Shropshire is based in Hope Bowdler, within easy reach of Church Stretton, Much Wedlock, Bishops Castle, and is approximately a 30 minute drive from Ludlow and Shrewsbury.
