Peterborough is tipped by many to be a strong investment area due to its excellent road links[The A1 and A47 pass through,and it is only 45 mins from kings cross london by train.]Many people commute daily to London,and go to the beach at the weekend[try Hunstanton],or try Sandringham Royal palace if you have an hour to spare and have a car to get there-magical free dog walking in beautiful woodlands fit for our wonderful Queen,or visit the main house for roughly £13!

Peterborough central park is 5 minutes walk-try tennis,or the park cafes[slightly overpriced] al fresco menu,or have an italian style coffee while you take in the air or walk the kids/dog.The Park is a jewel in

Peterboroughs crown and was laid out by the victorians,and,I believe many years ago, charged tuppence to get in!It would be a shame to miss this street market,again its 5 minutes walk to the city centre,supermarkets,around the city,walking fenland,or the superb sandringham for walking and doggers here,or an easy train to the ferry,or the superb park,or the lovely sandringham away or so in a car you have Sandringham Royal Palace,or just a little further,please try Hunstanton beach,or visit Norfolk on head south from Peterborough to London down the A1,about £10 in diesel for a modern car.Perhaps you prefer Diwali light festival in Leicester,that's under an hour,or an easy midlands commute and the central Mosque is across town.We have it all right here!David
