2004 SV1000s for sale Reluctant sale due to buying a house and a new arrival. This great bike has never let me down since owning it, mechanically sound with just over 28,000 on the clock from new.

There is a small chip from a tankbag zip as shown in the pictures. The bike could also benefit from a new number plate bracket as the previous one snapped but this has never bothered me as it's not on show, probably could do with a good wash as it's been stored since Christmas in my warehouse. Priced at 1800 to sell.

No test pilots without payment.

Please contact me if you'd like more.
