I provide Microsoft Windows training including Windows 10. I offer training for all Microsoft Office software in particular Edge, Explorer, Excel, Word and Outlook. I can also train you on a tablet computer. Training can be in the comfort of your own home or office. I can provide training on using the Internet - from the basics - to more advanced uses. I am very experienced in training and writing simple to advanced spreadsheets in Excel to help you or your business with it's accounting needs. I have 25 years experience in the industry - working for a wide variety of individuals and companies. I also have a lot of experience with Sage and other accounting software. Please don't hesitate contact me with your requirements - no matter how big or small.. Thank.
