In a recent Classic and Sports Car article...." 8 series offer huge performance and luxury for surprisingly little money...the UK market is still waking up to modern classics". In this month's Classic and Sportscar (June issue) it is repeated that 8 Series are one of the undervalued classic supercars at present, with "Buy Now Before The Boom Begins" ! The 8 Series was the last major car to be designed by Claus Luthe, BMW's greatest car designer. His goal was to produce a car with performance that was equivalent to the Italian exotics, but with BMW's comfort, sophistication, and build quality. At £17,950 or if no part exchange just £15,950, this is a superb and practical classic.
