I am a Professional Photographer based in Leicestershire but able to travel throughout the UK. I provide a totally confidential and discreet service either in your home, at any location or at one of 2 studios based in Loughborough and Coalville. Because a lot of clients feel more comfortable in their own home I have custom designed lighting equipment etc for a smaller space whilst still giving you the full studio feel. The 2 studios I use are both multiset studios, one does have a dungeon room for the more adventurous. Age, size or sexuality not a problem and I'm always happy to help with special requests. I am here to provide you with a confidential fun shoot with all shots being supplied on disc, memory cards are then data shredded for your security so that you have the only. Shoots start at £40 for an hour, the only extras are fuel and any studio hire fee. Contact me for details and an exact price, no hidden extra charges on the day of the shoot and I'm always flexible if the shoot runs over.
