I inherited this Bracelet a few years ago and unfortunately I do not know of it origins it has been carefully stored away. It has 17 beautiful sparkly Amethyst stones and appears to be beautifully crafted not just from the front but also from the side and back. It has the most unusual attractive clasp but seems to be extremely secure. Both ends of the clasps have hallmarks one reads 925 and the other clasp appears to have a sort of star and then some writing which I can't make out but I think there could be also some numbers, please see photos! The Length is Approx 19.5cm. This would make a stunning gift for someone very special!!! I can arrange to send by post at buyers expense. From Smoke/pet free.
