Lookig trick, this ZX6R ninja is the performance addition which has a few bolt extras as standard such as the carbon fibre Akrapovic exhaust, double bubble screen, tank pad and seat cowl. A tail tidy has also been added to tidy up the rear of the bike. With 135 bhp, traction control as standard, the Performance edition also comes with Kawasaki's intelligent braking system which is basically an upgraded version of the ABS system that is optional on the standard bike. In 10 out of 10 condition, this one private owner from new 1600 mile bike has all the keys and books and still has the remainder of the Kawasaki warranty transferable to the new owner.
