Administered by HMRC, you need not register your enterprise for VAT till the sales turnover crosses the threshold of £82,000 or it is anticipated to do so in the near future. One of the prime advantages of registering for VAT is that some of the VAT cost you have been charged while purchasing goods is possible to reclaim. You can contact VAT Registrations to register for VAT. With more than a decade's experience of helping clients register for VAT, VAT Registrations usually provides the VAT number within only one.
