Ever wondered why your fingers go wrinkly in the bath? What explosions in space really look like? Or why beans make you fart?! Well wonder no more. Fresh from Blue Peter and BBC's Factomania join Science Guy Greg Foot at the Exeter Phoenix on Wednesday 11th May 2016 for a show of curious questions and explosive answers. With over 8 million views on You Tube, Greg will stop at nothing to answer YOUR questions LIVE, even if he has to use a giant flamethrower, make a rainbow indoors or launch a space rocket! Make sure you bring along your own burning questions for Greg to answer – or tweet them in advance to @gregfoot. Oh, and a WARNING: This show features some VERY loud bangs and some HUGE flames! So if you like your eyebrows make sure you bring your safety goggles along... You've got some right? No?! Uh oh! Tickets are available to purchase through the Exeter Phoenix box office and ticketmaster. For further information go to www.gregfoot
