The XRX is the premium, more road-orientated model of the Tiger range, with a comfortable seat that's adjustable and a height adjustable screen too, a 19 inch front wheel makes it handle better on the road compared to its XC cousin. Being a premium model, youâ€™d expect the XRX to come with an array of things to play with and that's exactly what you get... ABS, traction control, cruise control, centerstand, handguards, adjustable screen, adjustable seat, two 12V power sockets and self-cancelling indicators. The XRX also gets comfort seats for both the rider and pillion, letting you stay on the road for longer. This example is in unmarked condition, having had one former keeper and is still under Triumph Warranty. ABS, Traction Control, Cruise
