This tent officially sleeps four on two raised double beds, new mattresses may be required, two are included but are not pristine. When opened out fully it is possible to fit another two people comfortably. The pictures show the tent partially erected due to space restrictions. It is old but in good condition although does not come with units or cooking equipment. There is storage space along each inner side of the trailer and all pegs, poles and mallet are present. This will make you and your family a lovely little home in the outdoors for your holidays. All potential buyers are welcome to come and view, just give me a ring or drop me a line to arrange a.
