Peugeot are great at providing top value for money for what always seems to be a very competitive price. The little 207's are ideal for someone that just needs a car to run about in that won't cost them an awful lot to fill up, tax or insure whilst it remains a comfortable and pleasant car to drive and own. Ours here is just five years old and has covered little over 50,000 miles in that time. It's been kept in lovely condition both inside and out which gives me great pleasure in putting it out for sale on our forecourt. Being the 1.4, insurance will be cheap for the likes of the younger drivers on the road, whilst tax for the year costs a very reasonable £130 and you will see fuel figures of up to 57.7 miles per gallon on a run. If this happens to be the kind of thing that you're looking for, then please do pop us a call at the office and we'd be happy to answer any questions and/or get you booked in for a viewing.
