I am female well experienced photographer based in London SW. I do offer lovely, artistic newborn baby portraits and preagency/ family sessions. I love working with families, kids and babies. You can feel it during the sessions and see this in my work. Pictures can be taken in the comfort of your home using natural light. I recommend capturing newborn portraits in the first 3-12 days. This is the time when they are sleeping deeply, are very flexible and still have the cute curled up pose. Prices from £50 Check my portfolios on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/fotografia.imaginarium> Please feel free to book my session over the phone or via email. ;
