some retail therapy. Alternatively Gretna Gateway's Designer Outlet offers up some unique shopping in the area should you wish to pick up something a little bit different. Traditional hamlets and picturesque villages are scattered all along the coastline, where the views are stunning and quaint pubs and cafes offer welcome lunch and coffee stops. The Kings Arms at Bowness on Solway, a traditional family pub, located at the western end of Hadrians Wall and within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty is the perfect lunch stop for those enjoying a day's sightseeing, cycling, walking or bird watching within the Grasslands – a site of scientific interest. A little further afield are the breathtaking delights of the Lake District National Park and a little further again, you cross the Border into Scotland.
