Condor of London, Heritage touring bike dark green in colour. Size equivalent to 58cm as it has sloping top tube. I'm six foot and it fits me perfectly. I bought this new and have done no more than 250 miles at the most. I just don't have time to use it as I intended so have decided to sell it. This is a beautiful bike, it's very comfortable to ride and eats up the miles, it is in excellent condition. Gearing is Campagnolo xenon 9 speed with ergo shifters. I have upgraded the chainset to a Stronglight with 48,38,28 chainrings and 172.5 long cranks. There are two spacers above the head tube giving 45 mm of adjustment on bar height if desired. Powerful V brakes and Continental Contact tyres 28mm. Rear rack and a pair of excellent Vaude panniers cost over £80 alone. Front fork has bosses for front rack. Similar spec bike from Condor new cost over £1300 without the panniers £850 ONO. Contact for further
