Here we have a beautiful male panther chameleon for sale. Through no fault of his own. He's around 8-9months old and sheds every 3-4weeks. He will come with his full set up which includes, viv, heater, UV light, and a thermostat, which controls temperature levels automatically so you dont have to do it manually. He is starting to become more tame with handling, coming to the window when he wants to come out. Once held he enjoys it. He will come with calcium powder and multi vitamins. Currently being fed on medium locuse. Any more info, please to not hesitate to contact me. Looking for his forever home. £300 or nearest.
