TO RENT If you are looking for “Holiday Cottages in Kent” or “Self Catering Accommodation in Kent” then we believe you have found it. We are tucked away in a little corner of the “Garden of England” enjoying extensive views of the surrounding countryside. Wildlife visitors to our garden include greater spotted and green woodpeckers and on those peaceful summer days a distant cuckoo sings. Equidistant from the villages of Horsmonden, Goudhurst and Marden. Ideally situated for a visit to gorgeous local gardens Sissinghurst and Great Dixter as well as outstanding castles Leeds, Scotney and Hever. Less than 1 hour from London by train and a mere 45 minutes from the Channel Tunnel. Self Catering Flexible two or three bedroom ground floor accommodation depending on the size of your party and budget. Families come in all shapes and sizes and we hope to accommodate all our guests ensuring that their holiday will be tailor-made in every way. Sitting/Dining Area Spacious with heaps of character, our living accommodation has a vaulted ceiling and skylights with original honey coloured pine beams throughout. The Living area has two comfortable sofas and an easy chair in which to relax after a long day sightseeing! A polished wood coffee table and further side table are appropriately spaced for the leisure of the occupants. This cavernous area is lit by wall lights and for avid book readers a further standard lamp will shed yet more light. Rest and relaxation is complete with a Television, DVD and Video player. The long North facing windows allow views of Joanna and Paul’s garden as well as the surrounding panoramic countryside in the Weald of Kent. The Dining area of the cottage has a dark wood polished table and matching seating for six persons. The floor is recently tiled which allows ambient warmth from the under floor heating. Relax with music from a Sony radio/cassette/CD player which serves both the Sitting and Dining areas. Children and grown ups alike will be entertained with a bookcase stocked with videos and various DVD’s and books. We have a sideboard which is home to place mats, table cloths and a glass supply. A small assortment of games should stimulate the imagination of the young and old alike. If you are unsure what you have been pleased to ask Joanna and Paul will be happy to help in any way possible. Free Wi-Fi is available. Intercom for easy phone calls and debit/credit cards accepted. This is a well equipped and comfortable home for a relaxing holiday. The kitchen has a fridge with ice compartment, microwave and electric cooker with ceramic hob incorporating a grill. Better still treat yourselves and dine out locally. Our kitchen units are of cosy terracotta red with original Italian wall tiles. There is also a bread bin, toaster and kettle with ample glasses, mugs, china, pots and pans. Laundry area This is a separate area housing a washing machine and tumble drier. Bathroom Little Doodles has a bath with a handy mixer shower over the taps (just perfect for washing the children’s hair!) and an anti slip mat is available. There is a separate shower cubicle with a clear sliding door, basin & w.c. A useful pine mirrored cabinet is available for storage of items and includes a hair dryer. The floor
