A Newborn, Child and Portrait Photographer based in Crowborough, covering East Sussex and Tunbridge Wells. I love capturing those precious moments not only during the newborn stages, but also throughout a child's journey through life.

I have a home studio in Crowborough, East Sussex, but also love going out on location (weather permitting) where I can capture the pure essence of a child, where they are free to be themselves, whether it be at home, a local park or a venue of your.
